Meet DVACK's Practicum Student, Carolina Snowden!

Coming all the way from Spanaway, Washington, Carolina is excited to join DVACK's team as a practicum student with Kansas Wesleyan University. Studying Social Work, Carolina's dream is to help people, especially survivors of domestic violence and sexual assault. During her service at DVACK, she hopes to gain experience and knowledge in this field and connect with survivors on a personal level, validate their emotions, and help them find a way forward.
